

SOUR DUBB

Sour Diesel x Sour Bubble

Originally a clone-only strain of unknown heritage, Sour Dubb is thought to be a cross of East Coast Sour Diesel and Sour Bubble. B.O.G. Seeds then recreated this mysterious strain using Rez Dog's Sour Diesel IBL instead of the ECSD. The result? A perfect blend of head and body effects that feels more like an Indica than the original Sativa-dominant Hybrid. Dense buds with copious amounts of trichomes produce a pungent, sweet 'n sour odor with a strong diesel flavor, plus a sweet fruity aftertaste. Yum!
